Die Sonne soll heut für Dich scheinen und keine Wolke Regen weinen.
Wir wünschen Dir das Allerbeste zu Deinem heutigen Geburtstagsfeste.
